

Trinity School poets fare well in library contest

Posted 5/13/10

Four students at Trinity School, in Ellicott City, received awards for their entries in the 2010 Word Up! Poetry Contest, sponsored by the Friends of Howard County Library.

Sixth-grader Nicholas Law won first prize for his poem "Coqui."

Eighth-grader Minyoung Jang and sixth-graders Kathleen Maguire and Patrick Choy received honorable mention prizes.

"Coqui," Jang's poem "Campfire," Maguire's poem "Parade" and Choy's poem "Nature" were published in the Word Up! Winning Poems book.
